Hi, my name is Danielle.

When my son Jordan died, I wanted to die, too. I wanted to be with my baby. I was in rough shape. A counsellor at a United Way Winnipeg agency suggested I volunteer at their thrift store, and it changed my life. I not only found purpose, I found joy.

Because people like you support United Way Winnipeg, people like me can learn how to cope with our past experiences and look forward to a bright future.

Thank you.

Hi, my name is Sydney.

When the mother of my children died, I knew I had to change my ways and be strong for them. At the time, I was homeless, unemployed, and struggling with alcohol use. And then I walked into a United Way Winnipeg agency. Today, I'm off the streets, I'm employed, and I'm sober.

Because people like you support United Way Winnipeg, people like me can overcome our challenges and make a better life for ourselves and our families.

Thank you.

Hi, my name is Kyra.

When I was a child, I had to deal with racism and abuse. I was very uncertain about my future. Then I learned about a mentorship program offered by a United Way Winnipeg agency, and it changed my life. Today, I'm a mentor to other youth, and I'm also studying to work with young people as a career.

Because people like you support United Way Winnipeg, young people like me can connect with mentors who can help us realize our full potential.

Thank you.

Hi, my name is Catherine.

When my family and I had to flee our home in the Democratic Republic of Congo, we came to Winnipeg with nothing. It was a very stressful time. A United Way Winnipeg agency helped us with the transition, and another United Way Winnipeg agency helped me go back to school. Today I'm working, and my family is safe.

Because people like you support United Way Winnipeg, people like me can find ways to become financially empowered and give our children happier and healthier lives.

Thank you.
