- build strong relationships; and
- meet service expectations.

Personal information is disclosed or provided to third parties only in the following circumstances:

- Donor recognition – Donors may be publicly recognized by United Way of Winnipeg in various publications and events. If a donor wishes to remain anonymous, they have the opportunity to indicate this in the space provided on their pledge form.
- Third party services – in order to maintain cost effectiveness and provide a high level of service, services are periodically provided by third parties on United Way’s behalf. These companies enter into confidentiality agreements with United Way, requiring them to protect the information while in their control and not to keep any personal information on file.
- Designations to specific charities – where a portion of a donor’s gift is directed to a specific charitable organization, the amount of the donation, the name and address of the donor may be forwarded to the recipient organization. If the donor does not wish this to occur, they have the opportunity to indicate this in the space provided on their pledge form.

United Way’s Commitment to Information Protection

Personal information gathered by United Way of Winnipeg is kept in strict confidence. Confidentiality obligations are imposed on staff and volunteers who are authorized to access personal information based only on their need to deal with the information for the reason(s) it was obtained. Safeguards are in place to ensure that information is not disclosed or shared more widely than is necessary to achieve the purpose for which it was gathered. Measures are taken to ensure the integrity of information and to prevent its being lost or inadvertently destroyed.

United Way of Winnipeg secures your information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. Information is stored in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access. We use password protocols and encryption software to protect personal information that is received and/or provided through the internet. Software is routinely updated to maximize protection of such information.

Comments and Feedback

United Way welcomes comments regarding the Statement of Privacy and its implementation. United Way of Winnipeg will occasionally update this policy to reflect feedback and operational changes.

To show United Way of Winnipeg’s commitment to privacy, a Privacy Officer has been appointed.
