

Indian City is a Juno Nominated Award Winning Pop/Folk/Rock Music Collective based in Winnipeg, Manitoba. The group was founded in 2012 by the late Vince Fontaine. Indian City's unique live fusion of lyrics, music, and personality, express the modern conscience of today's Indigenous People. Indian City has been recognized nationally and internationally, winning several awards such as the: Western Canadian Music Awards, Indian Summer Music Awards, Native American Music Awards & Aboriginal Peoples Choice Music Awards!

Indian City's 2023 Juno nomination for the Contemporary Indigenous Group of the Year Award acknowledges late founder Vince Fontaine's final project titled: Code Red and brings the tally up to 4 albums made by this Supergroup.

In the Spring of 2022, Warner Music Canada signed Indian City and re-released Code Red on September 30th, 2022, to coincide with National Truth & Reconciliation Day. Indian City's roster is always evolving, bringing together Indigenous Superstars and Guests to create not only exceptional albums, but also deliver energy infused performances with their live shows.
